

Aga Khan Foundation U.S.A.

Essay Competition

GUIDELINES

Attention High School Students (Grades 9-12):

Eligibility:

Participation in the Aga Khan Foundation U.S.A. (AKF USA) Essay Competition is limited to high school students enrolled full-time in grades 9 through 12 during the 2008-2009 academic year in schools located in the United States.

Deadline:

- Registrations must be received no later than Friday, October 31, 2008.
- Essays are to be submitted no later than Friday, January 23, 2009.
- No exceptions will be made to these deadlines.
- You must submit your entry as a MS-Word document attached to the e-mail at the following e-mail address: essays@partnershipsinaction.org Subject: AKF USA Essay Competition

Research:

The competition encourages participants to learn about innovative solutions for reducing poverty in Asia and Africa. It is also designed to help students develop a deeper appreciation of the practical ways for reaching the Millennium Development Goals. By reviewing and researching the impact of Aga Khan Foundation U.S.A.'s programs and the various agencies of Aga Khan Development Network, students have the opportunity to better understand how solutions to reducing global poverty are not only possible but currently taking place. The competition requires an analytical essay based on research. Research links are provided at <http://www.partnershipsinaction.org/essay/> on the PartnershipsInAction website under Global Citizenship/Contents. There are case studies available at that link to provide participants with current information about actual development projects taking place in Africa and Asia. These case studies can be used for conducting your research as you develop your persuasive essay. Participants are welcomed to research other sources; however, they are responsible for assessing the credibility of the information on which they base their conclusions. In addition, participants can also visit www.akdn.org for further research.

Essay Topic / Prompt:

The eight Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) – which range from halving extreme poverty to halting the spread of HIV/AIDS and providing universal primary education, all by the target date of 2015 – form a blueprint agreed to by all the world's countries and leading development institutions. They have galvanized unprecedented efforts to meet the needs of the world's poorest. For more information about the United Nations Millennium Development Goals, visit:

<http://www.un.org/millenniumgoals/>

Select one of the MDGs and support how Aga Khan Foundation and Aga Khan Development Network are helping to ensure that this goal is being reached in individual countries and communities worldwide.

MDGs (choose one):

(1) Eradicate extreme poverty; (2) Achieve universal primary education; (3) Promote gender equality and empower women; (4) Reduce child mortality; (5) Improve maternal health; (6) Combat HIV/AIDS malaria and other diseases; (7) Ensure environmental sustainability; and (8) Develop a global partnership for development.

Step by Step Procedures:

- (1) You must first register on-line at www.partnershipsinaction.org/essay by October 31, 2008. Upon registering, you will receive a confirmation email with instructions and a Participant I.D. number. Save that I.D. number for reference. You will need it when you submit your essay.
- (2) To qualify, you must follow the guidelines listed below in terms of length and format. You must email your essay as an attachment to essays@partnershipsinaction.org by January 23, 2009. On the front cover page you will include your Participant I.D. number. This number is used instead of your name to keep the writer's identity anonymous during the judging process.
- (3) Approximately, one month after the essay submission deadline, a panel of judges will review the essays and winners will be announced shortly thereafter.

- (4) All participants that submitted qualifying essays will receive a certificate of appreciation and community service hours. The winners will be notified by email and granted cash prizes for 1st, 2nd or 3rd place. The prizes are as follows: $500 for 1st place, $250 for 2nd place and $150 for 3rd place. All winning essays and honorable mentions will be posted on the PartnershipsInAction website.

Paper Guidelines:

Length of Paper: The required length of the essay is 3-5 pages (800-1000 words), typed (independent of the works cited page). Definite and indefinite articles (the, a, an) do not count. Also, block quotations are not allowed.

Format: Use MLA format for the following: parenthetical documentation (for direct quotations and paraphrasing), margins, and works cited. The paper must be double-spaced, typed in 12 pt. font size, and Times New Roman font. The essay should also be typed in normal or plain text, not bold, italicized, etc.

Title Page: Each essay must have a separate title page. About one-third of the way down the page, center the title. (Capitalize the appropriate first letters, but do not underline, italicize, or use bold or OVERSIZE type. If it occupies more than one line, single-space it.) Near the bottom of the page, center your Participant I.D. number and the due date of the paper (each on its own line, single-spaced). The final line should be approximately an inch from the bottom of the page. Required font: Times New Roman. Required size: 12 pt. font.

Headers/Footers: The title of the essay should also appear on the first page of the text, but do not put your name or any identifying information anywhere in the body of the essay itself. You must insert page numbers on the top right-hand corner of each page (excluding the title page).

Judging Criteria:

Essays that meet all the above guidelines will be judged in blind competition by a panel of humanities scholars and educators familiar with the work of high school students. They will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

Development of Position: Does the essay demonstrate a thorough understanding of the topic, and is the position effectively and insightfully developed? Does it give clear and specific examples from Aga Khan Foundation and Aga Khan Development Network projects? Does the essay offer a persuasive analysis of the sources of a particular idea or set of ideas? Does it have a clear and well-supported point of view?

Organization: Is the information organized in an effective way that advances a particular idea? Is the essay clearly focused?

Use of Language: Does the writer display skillful use of language? Does the writer's use of language enhance the originality of the essay? Is a unique voice/perspective underlying the actual information? Is the vocabulary accurate? Does the writer have a good sense of connotative diction?

Sentence Structure: Does the writer demonstrate a meaningful and a skilled variety of sentence structure?

Grammar: Has correct mechanics, usage, and grammar been used?

Important information: See Persuasive Essay Rubric for details on the grading criteria (on next page).

Waiver:

You agree to grant to Aga Khan Foundation U.S.A. a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide the right to publicly display and transmit the essay you submit to the competition by e-mail to Aga Khan Foundation U.S.A.
