

It's a great organization, non-denominational, not for profit organization. And it's great to see the efforts they are doing around the world, in particular, the third world countries.

- Dominique Wilkins, Member of the NBA Hall of Fame and Former Atlanta Hawk

Aga Khan Foundation U.S.A. proudly presents the PartnershipsInAction Golf Tournament, a nationwide initiative, held in major cities across the U.S. The event raises funds and awareness for long-term innovative solutions to help communities in some of the poorest areas of Africa and Asia.

Join us for a noble cause and a day of friendly competition and fun on the green.

PartnershipsInAction Golf is a unique opportunity for individuals and companies to contribute in a variety of ways, from putting together foursomes to sponsoring, volunteering and promoting the tournament.

The tournament will be played in progressive scramble format.

Each player registration includes: unlimited use of the driving range and practice facilities on the morning of the tournament, golf cart, terrific tee prizes, banquet breakfast, opportunity to meet and golf with celebrities, a variety of pre-tournament and on-course activities and contests including six hole in one prizes, followed by a BBQ-Grill lunch. Intrigued, watch last year's Golf Event, it's a 'Hole in One'.
